

At your front door

Imagine a line of people from all nations standing outside your front door waiting for you to explain the gospel message to them, to answer their questions or help them grow in their new faith. Would you open the door?

Amazing new opportunities

The Internet is opening up new opportunities for reaching people like never before. Over 26% (1.8 billion) of the world's population now have Internet accesses. Today 300,000 people will visit one of the 90+ websites developed by Campus Crusade for Christ and its partners. 30,000 of these people will make a spiritual decision and 7,000 will ask for personal follow up. We only have a little over 3,500 online volunteers for this mammoth task. We need your help!

So there really is a line of people waiting for you. Each one needs someone to pray and care for them by responding with a letter. Many will only ask once. How sad if Christians did not rise to this historic opportunity.

Get Involved

This ministry is life transforming. You can share Jesus with more people than you ever thought possible! This helps you to grow spiritually as you prayerfully prepare these email responses. It gives you a taste for missions and real evangelism without the "fear factor" as you have time to thoughtfully prepare answers. Responses that are "too hard" can be reassigned to others in the team who focus on different aspects of counselling ... so you're not alone.

The software we use ensures anonymity and safety; both for volunteers and the people we minister to. Therefore, people are more open to share their needs and be ministered to.

We're particularly keen for you to join us if you can write in: Arabic, Chinese, French, Indonesian, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Persian, Russian, Spanish, Turkish or Vietnamese.
